By seller's acceptance of this purchase order the seller agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to identify whether the goods provided to the buyer contain the minerals tantalum, tin, tungsten, or gold.

If the goods supplied are found to contain tantalum, tin, tungsten, or gold the seller is required to use commercially reasonable efforts to determine their origin.

If the tantalum, tin, tungsten, or gold is found to originate from one of the countries defined in Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, for the purpose of identifying and conducting reasonable due diligence concerning the smelter, the seller is required to conduct due diligence on the chain of custody of said minerals.

Finally, if and when requested by the buyer, the seller agrees to provide the buyer with reasonable documentation of the seller's due diligence efforts in this regard.
